The Savannah College of Art and Design, Inc. (“SCAD”) and HonduFuturo, share an interest in strengthening bilateral cooperation in the field of education between Honduras and the SCAD and promoting stronger ties between the two institutions to increase the financial support available for graduate studies of Honduran students.

The purpose of this agreement is to foster cooperation and enhance the links between the two institutions through the provision of shared financing for talented Honduran students admitted to residential graduate degree programs at SCAD within the framework of a joint Graduate Loan-Scholarship program.

The joint Graduate Loan-Scholarship Program will operate as follows:

3. Students who are offered a place for full-time residential graduate studies at SCAD and who are selected as beneficiaries of the Loan-Scholarship Program of HonduFuturo will be eligible or considered for the shared financing under this agreement.
4. SCAD will provide a scholarship to eligible students with high levels of academic achievement in their previous studies and who demonstrate high academic and artistic proficiency through the application to SCAD. SCAD will provide a scholarship of:

- $10,000 USD of the tuition fees only, to all eligible students who demonstrate academic proficiency with a GPA of 3.45 to 3.79 and artistic proficiency, through a major-specific portfolio, deemed “medium” by the University’s admission review committee.

- $15,000 USD of the tuition fees only, to all eligible students who demonstrate academic proficiency with a GPA of 3.80 to 4.0 and artistic proficiency, through a major-specific portfolio, deemed “high” by the University’s admission review committee.

SCAD will offer this financial support to master's students with an automatic yearly renewal so long as the student maintains a GPA of 3.25 or higher in a scale of 4.0 until completion of the program.

5. HonduFuturo will provide the remainder of the tuition, fees, living allowance and will cover other related costs, in accordance with its policies and procedures, i.e. up to USD 25,000 annually for a maximum financing of two years, or USD 50,000 total.
6. The students are responsible for obtaining financial resources to cover other costs (that are not included in this Loan-Scholarship agreement) related to their program of study. Students are also responsible for complying with the regulations and policies of SCAD (both academic and behavioral). Any violation will be the responsibility of the student and they will be subject to the penalties established for such violations or misconduct, which may ultimately include removal from SCAD without refund.
7. Each institution will designate a coordinator to implement and monitor this joint Graduate Loan-Scholarship Program. In particular, the designated coordinators will be responsible for ensuring:
