Memorandum of Understanding Between
Queensland University of Technology and
Fundación Hondur Futuro

Queensland University of Technology (QUT) (CRICOS No. 00213J | ABN 83 791 724 622) and Hondur Futuro, share an interest in strengthening bilateral cooperation in the field of education between Honduras and QUT, and promoting stronger ties between the two institutions to increase the financial support available for graduate studies of Honduran students.

The purpose of this agreement is to foster cooperation and enhance the links between the two institutions through the provision of shared financing for talented Honduran students admitted to residential graduate degree programs at QUT, within the framework of a joint Graduate Loan-Scholarship program.

The joint Graduate Loan-Scholarship Program will operate as follows:

1. Students in Honduras interested in this joint Graduate Loan-Scholarship Program will seek admission to the graduate degree programs offered by QUT (Master by Coursework), following the normal application procedures and meeting all the standard admissions requirements (including official language tests) established by QUT.
2. Students admitted to the graduate degree programs offered by QUT (Master by Coursework) will submit a Loan-Scholarship application to Hondur Futuro, following the normal application procedures and meeting all the standard requirements established by Hondur Futuro.
3. Students who are offered a place for full-time graduate studies at QUT and who are selected as beneficiaries of the Loan-Scholarship Program of Hondur Futuro will be eligible or considered for the shared financing under this agreement.
4. To recognise high academic achievers applying to QUT postgraduate coursework, QUT shall offer a partial tuition fee scholarship equivalent to 25% of the applicable published semester fees to selected students. Conditions apply. Refer to Appendix II.
5. An ongoing tuition fee scholarship, equivalent to 25% of the applicable semester published fees, will be applied if the student maintains a grade point average of 5.5 on a 7.0 scale for each semester of study.

6. HonduFuturo will provide the remainder of the tuition, fees, living allowance and will cover other related costs, in accordance with its policies and procedures, i.e. up to USD 25,000 annually for a maximum financing of two years, or USD 50,000 total.
7. The students are responsible for obtaining financial resources to cover other costs (that are not included in this Loan-Scholarship agreement) related to their program of study.
8. Each institution will designate a coordinator to implement and monitor this joint Graduate Loan-Scholarship Program. In particular, the designated coordinators will be responsible for ensuring:
 - a) that QUT and HonduFuturo provide prospective Honduran students with information on their programs of interest and guidance on how to apply to QUT
 - b) that QUT provides HonduFuturo with all the relevant promotional materials and brochures on the different graduate degree programs at QUT to encourage interest among prospective Honduran students
 - c) that QUT provides all Honduran students admitted to their graduate degree programs information on the Loan-Scholarship Program of HonduFuturo and encourages these students to contact and submit an application to HonduFuturo
 - d) that HonduFuturo informs QUT of successful candidates by sending the list of Honduran students admitted to QUT and selected as beneficiaries of the Loan-Scholarship Program of HonduFuturo
 - e) that QUT will select the eligible students granted the university scholarship mentioned in Number 4 and Number 5. QUT will then notify HonduFuturo of this decision.
 - f) that HonduFuturo provides QUT with institutional information on HonduFuturo and pertinent details on its Loan-Scholarship Program and the payment scheme (see Appendix I) and that the designated coordinator of QUT communicates this information to the relevant authorities of QUT (i.e. bursars and student accounts offices)
 - g) that both institutions make the necessary financial arrangements for confirmed recipients
 - h) that both institutions have the obligation to inform the other party of any change in the designated coordinator or signatory in charge of this agreement.

APPENDIX I

GENERAL TERMS AND PAYMENT SCHEMES OF HONDUFUTURO'S LOAN-SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

1. Hondufuturo's financing system consists of a Loan-Scholarship for up to US$25,000 annually for a maximum financing of two years, or US$50,000 in total.
2. The applicants for the Loan-Scholarship determine the amount to be requested from Hondufuturo in accordance with Hondufuturo's policies and procedures.
3. Successful applicants (beneficiaries) of this program can use the Loan-Scholarship to cover the full or partial costs of their graduate studies abroad.
4. Hondufuturo's Loan-Scholarship is granted in U.S. Dollars. All payments to beneficiaries (e.g. installment, housing, living allowance) are also made in U.S. Dollars, but Hondufuturo may pay tuition to universities in other currencies, if so required. However, Hondufuturo's beneficiaries have the obligation to assume any discrepancy arising from foreign exchange fluctuations, foreign exchange or transfer costs.
5. Hondufuturo's selection process for the Loan-Scholarship Program is performed on a yearly basis. The online application becomes available every year by mid-February and applicants can start complying with documentary requirements until April 30th. Results are published between the last two weeks of June each year.
6. Hondufuturo notifies partner universities immediately regarding the results of the selection process by sending them the list of Hondufuturo's beneficiaries admitted to their graduate degree programs.
7. Once students are selected and notified as beneficiaries of Hondufuturo, the latter arranges a meeting with the students to explain in detail the terms and conditions of the Loan-Scholarship. The students who accept these terms and conditions decide on the allocation of this Loan-Scholarship taking into account the maximum amounts mentioned in item 1 above. The beneficiary can allocate approved financial support among the following cost items:

Both institutions will promote the agreement to prospective Honduran graduate students.

The agreement shall remain in force from the date of signature by the designated representatives of each party and will be in effect until 31 December 2027. Either party may terminate the agreement by providing at least thirty days prior written notice to the other party.

- Airfare to and from university (up to US$2,000)
 - Settling allowance (one-time payment of up to US$2,000)
 - Tuition
 - Health insurance
 - Living allowance (up to US$1,300 per month. It can be increased by 25% , to US$1,650, if the beneficiary travels with family)
 - Textbooks and computer allowance (up to US$2,000 per year)
 - Debt insurance
8. HonduFuturo clearly informs the beneficiaries, which of the above items are payable directly to them or to the universities.
 9. HonduFuturo pays annual tuition and fees (and health insurance, when this is included in the tuition fees) directly to the college in the months of September, November, January, March, May or July.
 10. The beneficiaries are responsible for obtaining financial resources to cover the costs that are not included in this Loan-Scholarship agreement related to their program of study.
 11. This loan converts into a partial scholarship if the student returns to reside in Honduras for a minimum pre-established period. In order to qualify for the scholarship 40% waiver of the loan (those pursuing postgraduate degrees in management or MBA programs are awarded only 20% scholarship of the loaned amount), students must accomplish the following three requirements:
 - a. Receive their postgraduate degree,
 - b. Return to reside in Honduras, and
 - c. Remain and work in Honduras continuously for three to five years.

The remaining loan component must be paid by the beneficiary on a monthly basis upon his/her return to Honduras according to the established amortization period, which shall exceed a 5-year term.

An additional 20% scholarship shall be awarded to the beneficiary if he/she, upon returning to the country, engages in employment for a minimum period of one year as professors in public or private universities.

APPENDIX II

ELIGIBILITY FOR QUT ACADEMIC MERIT SCHOLARSHIP

The QUT academic merit scholarship will automatically be awarded to applicants who hold a recognised bachelor degree with a minimum grade point average of 9 on a 10 point scale (where 7 is a pass).

The academic merit scholarship will provide a tuition fee waiver, equivalent to 25% of the applicable semester published fees. It will initially be applied to two (2) semesters as per the following link: <https://www.qut.edu.au/study/fees-and-scholarships/scholarships/international-merit-scholarship>

An ongoing tuition fee scholarship, equivalent to 25% of the applicable semester published fees, will be applied as long as the student maintains a grade point average of 5.5 on a 7.0 scale after their first two semesters (one year) of study.
